

Drutt Opens New Office in Dubai

New office strengthens ties with operators in Middle East.

Stockholm, Sweden September 13, 2006 – Drutt Corporation, the world leading Mobile Service Delivery Platform (MSDP) provider, today announces its expansion into the Middle East with a regional office in Dubai. The office will service the Middle East, Africa and Southeast Asia, offering localised sales and support services.

Drutt also announces the appointment of Ali Shah, who will head up the new operation as Director of Business Development. Shah brings a wealth of industry and local market knowledge to his role at Drutt. He has worked in Oracle's Server Technologies group for seven years, over half the time based in Dubai.

The Drutt Mobile Service Delivery Platform (MSDP) is an end-to-end multi-channel solution enabling mobile operators establishing a profitable mobile service delivery business. Drutt Corporation helps mobile operators to integrate and manage thousands of content partners, merchandise and monetize any type of content and premium services. The Drutt MSDP solution incorporates a complete product suite, featuring Drutt Portal, Drutt Rendering, Drutt 3PI, Drutt Messaging and Drutt Alerts.
